Join the competition of 2020 for the best European thesis on military ethics now!

- EuroISME awards a prize for the best European student’s thesis (Masters of Arts) on military ethics.
- Annually a prize will be awarded to the winning student as well as to his/her military academy or civilian university (first prize and second prize).
- The prize ceremony will be held during EuroISME’s annual conference before a distinguished audience in Berlin.
- The prize consists of: 1) the opportunity for the winning student to present the thesis at our conference; 2) to publish it with us via Martinus Nijhoff publishers; 3) to have it translated; 4) a plaque for both the student and his/her institution; and 5) a sum of money for the winning student.
- Submissions in French, German and English are possible.
- The deadline for submissions is 30 November 2019. A thesis written in the past two academic years or in the current academic year is eligible.
More information: http://www.euroisme.eu/euroisme-prize-best-thesis-military-ethics or: contact Ms. Ivana Gošić directly: secretariat.ethicsprize@euroisme.eu or follow us:

• www.linkedin.com/groups/8265467
• www.facebook.com/euroisme/
• twitter.com/euroisme

The winning theses can be found on EuroISME’s website.

For non-European students, an analogous prize has been established at the Inamori Centre, Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio. See for details: https://case.edu/inamori/current-research